BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN PROFESSIONAL SERVICE PRACTITIONERS AND TECHNOLOGY

Established in 2006, 3Kites is a new company providing fresh thinking to an established world. 3Kites seeks to understand true business objectives and strategy in order to provide technology, services and consultancy in a consistently creative and dynamic manner.

Our clients benefit from the combined experience of over 70 years in the professional services sector and our desire to build long term working relationships based on results and trust. 3Kites has a highly developed understanding of fee-earner organisations allied to an extensive network of contacts and technological understanding. We have experience in a number of areas, including those outlined below:

- Knowledge Management
- Matter Management
- Management of Documents
- Project and Programme Management
- Business Process Analysis
- Client Relationship Management (CRM)
- Management Information and Reporting
